FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

- (1) The court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter under 18 USC § 1331.
- (2)

(a) Tilting windmills, Friedrich Lu is The Mouse That Roared, The Little Engine That Could.

(b) This historic case does not write from a clean slate -- history in that in the millennium-worth of (Anglo-American, including Commonwealth of Nations) common law, no one (let alone a sovereign) was reported for judicial corruption of such a scale, nature, depth (or height), breadth or duration.

(c) So, literally and figurally, in fact and in law, we are “to boldly go no man has gone before!”

(d) Here, absolute liability was established on the part of the United States one uncontested motion in each of

- Lu v Young, CA3 No 23-2486 (ECF No 34: Supplemental Motion to Appoint Special Master, dated Dec 2, 2023), and

- Lu v Comcast Cable Communications, LLC, CA3 No 23-3135 ECF No 28 Motion to Appoint Special Master and Default dated Feb 16, 2023 and ECF No 31 (Feb 18, 2024 certificate of service, on United States, of preceding motion), ECF No 30 (letter to clerk, dated Feb 18, 2024).

(e) Her liability will cast a long shadow throughout the case at bar, practically dooming all defendants as a result. Common sense dictates that she not be excluded from this case (as a nonparty). Indeed she is an indispensable party under Fed Rule Civ Proc 19, and sued as a nominal defendant.

All defendants (but not counsel if they happened to be government employees) listed in the body of the Complaint are sued in individual capacity (unless specified otherwise) and those in Addendum sued as civilians/ private citizens -- even if they work or might have worked for governments in the pertinent times.

(f) This lawsuit does not seek to overturn any of the underlying cases shown in Addendum (though successful prosecution necessarily entails that outcome as a byproduct. Rather, the objective of the instant action is to establish and assess damages of judicial corruption for cases listed in the body and Addendum of the Complaint. Afterwards, Lu will return to each underlying case to obtain jury verdict for damage.

(g) Statute of limitations is inapplicable, as all defendants and potential ones knowingly collaborated with DOJ to block all lawsuits of Lu's, without any discovery.

(h) For the same reason, all defendants (when in individual capacity) are sued jointly and severally from Counts Three through Ten.

(a) The critical difference between the original complaint and the instant one is that in a sober mood, Lu determines that there are more than enough circumstantial evidences to sue United States attorney general Garland in individual capacity as well as official one. The theories for the former capacity are: Garland (after coming to the office) has orchestrated the operations to injure Lu. Or he has been aware of the operations and federal employees behind them, and allowed them both to continue.

The operations are not emanated from a wayward mid-level DOJ career officer.

(b) Firm are allegations against United States Attorney for Eastern District of Pennsylvania Jacqueline C Romero. After Lu v Comcast Cable Communications, LLC, US Dist Ct (E.D.Pa.) No 22-cv-3633 was commenced, Romero met on the sidelines with judges (at minimum chief Sánchez, R Barclay Surrick) and clerk George V Wylesol to assign the case to the compromised Surrick. On behalf and at the recommendation of Comcast's general counsel Romero recruited figurehead but incompetent counsel, promising to ghostwrite.

Romero is not rogue, but rather at all times reported to and received orders from Garland. To preserve deniability, Garland directed Romero not to represent Mark L Wolf at district court (but changed mind and has Romero represent Wolf at Third Circuit. Garland also directed Romero to, in her name, file Statement of Interest under 28 USC § 517 in No 22-cv-3633; Romero did, despite the law (§ 517).

The same acts repeated in Lu v Young, US Dist Ct (E.D.Pa.) No 23-cv-1239: Romero met covertly with Sánchez, Wylesol and another district judge John Milton Younge and, after the last agreed to do the bidding notwithstanding a motion to disqualify the entire district court, assigned the case to Younge. Romero recruited counsels for two sets of defendants. In the interlocutory appeal CA3 No 23-1845, on information and belief Lu states that Romero did collude with motion judges to hold the (appeal) case (on the facially false motion to dismiss appeal) so that Younge could dismiss the case below (and Younge did); the recently appointed motion judges went along ignorant of circuit precedents on stay of district court proceedings while interlocutory appeal based on 28 USC § 1292(a)(1).

On Mar 5, 2024 Mitchell S Goldberg was invested as chief judge, supplanting Sánchez. On Feb 12, 2024 Judicial Conference issued a news release to promote random assignment in civil actions, which was widely reported in the front page of newspapers. Even so, Romero sprang into action again when the case at bar was instituted on Mar 15, 2024. Goldberg assigned the case to, a motion to disqualify the entire district court aside, Surrick, with whom Comcast conceded having colluded in 22-cv-3633.

When Lu requested Garland's office to check if the office had directed Romero to represent Mark L Wolf at Third Circuit, the office pointed to Executive Office of United States Attorneys for answer. Right away, Garland, Romero, her civil chief Gregory B David, and her assistant Mark J Sherer participated in wire fraud where February 9, 2024 emails from that Executive Office purported to supply a password so that Lu might file a FOIA request electronically with it did not contain the password. Lu reminded Executive Office in vain that there was no password, and therefore Lu could not make the request.

(a) Count One 18 USC § 1962(d) (RICO conspiracy; applicable to all defendants including the nominal one).

The predicate act is 18 USC § 1503 (obstruction of justice) when applicable.

The RICO enterprises are: United States Department of Justice (DOJ); Massachusetts SJC; US Dist Ct (D.Mass); CA1; US Dist Ct (E.D.Pa).

(b) Count Two 5 USC § 552(a)(6)(A)(ii): Garland is sued in official capacity for failure to decide appeal under Freedom of Information Act within 20 business days.

- under Massachusetts common law:

Count Three false arrest

Count Four false imprisonment

Count Five abuse of process

Count Six malicious prosecution

Count Seven intentional infliction of emotional distress

Count Eight civil conspiracy

Count Nine defamation

- Count Ten Mass Gen Laws Chap 12, § 11I (Massachusetts Civil Rights Act): Behind the scenes, DOJ maliciously abused Lu. Lu exercised his rights under petition clause of First Amendment. DOJ and privies relentlessly counter with more abuses and defamation on Lu.

(5)

(a) For almost three decades, DOJ has endeavored to deny Lu any government service (except homeless shelter in Boston).

(b) To that end, DOJ employees have subjected Lu under constant surveillance (besides tailing): hacking; installing spyware at computers, intercepting (both without a warrant), disclosing using content of email accounts. Armed with the information so obtained in real time, they take countermeasures to Lu's detriment:

- shutting down all avenues to petitioning the Government for a redress of grievances and • • •
- colluding with the other two branches of federal government and with branches of Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, which have led to amalgamation of branches of the former plus of federal-state entities.

(a) The employees who procured or participated in the activities are:

- United States Attorneys for District of Massachusetts: Donald K Stern (1993-2001), Michael J Sullivan (2001-2009), Carmen M Ortiz (2009-2017), Joshua S Levy (2023- ; acting).
- special agent in charge of the Boston Field Office Kenneth W Kaiser (2003-2006), Warren T Bamford (2007-2010), Richard C DesLauriers (2010-2013), Vincent B Lisi (2013-2015), Harold H Shaw (2015-2019), Joseph R Bonavolonta (2019 - 2023), Jodi Cohen (2023-)
- United States Attorney for Northern District of Illinois Patrick J Fitzgerald (2001-2012)

Levy and Jodi Cohen are also sued in official capacity.

- United States Attorney for Eastern District of Pennsylvania Jacqueline C Romero

(b)

- Count Eleven 18 USC § 1030(e)(8) (damage) and (g) (the factor being (c)(4)(A)(i)(I) (economic damage of at least $5,000 in dismissed lawsuits)

- Count Twelve 18 USC § 2520

- Count Thirteen 18 USC § 2707
- Count Fourteen Bivens action (unreasonable seizure under Fourth Amendment of effects including but not limited to electronic information, postal mail and belongings)
- Count Fifteen 47 USC § 207 (against Comcast on hacker's end of telecommunications service, and Verizon Communications Inc on Lu's -- where both telecommunications carriers collude with DOJ)

(7) To this end, DOJ recruited the following, almost all of whom have, not just no question asked, embraced whatever requested (by DOJ) as patriotic call of duty, coupled with fervor and righteousness as if doing God's work. The few (request) recipients were sidelined who expressed concerns.

- First Circuit judge Levin H Campbell, Michael Boudin, Gustavo A Gelpí
- US Dist Ct (D.Mass.) judges: Rya W Zobel, Douglas P Woodlock, Richard G Stearns, Edward F Harrington
- justices of Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts: Herbert P Wilkins (1972-1999), Martha B Sosman (2000-2007), John M Greaney (1889-2008), Margaret H Marshall (1996-2010), Judith CA Cowin (1999-2011), Roderick L Ireland (1997-2014), Fernande RV Duffly (2011-2016), Robert J Cordy (2001-2016), Francis X Spina (1999-2016), Geraldine S Hines (2014-2017), Margot Botsford (2007-2017), Barbara A Lenk (2011-2020), David A Lowy (2016-2024), Elspeth B Cypher (2017-), Frank M Gaziano (2016- 2024), David A Lowy (2016-), Scott L Kafker (2017-), Dalila Arguez Wendlandt (2020-)
- United States senator Scott P Brown (2010-2013)
- United States representatives Michael E Capuano (1999-2019), Ayanna Pressley (2019-), Stephen F Lynch (2001-), William D Delahunt (1997-2011)

- Secretary of Commonwealth William F Galvin
- Mass DOT / MBTA general counsel John T Englander (2015-2017), Marie Breen (2017-2023), Douglas M McGarrah (2023-)
- Mary-Louise White, PhD, chief operating officer of Solomon Carter Fuller Mental Health Center in Boston; attorney Marcy C Levington
- Suffolk district attorney Ralph C Martin II (1992 - 2002), Rachael E Rollins (2019-2022), Kevin R Hayden (2022-)
- attorney general of Massachusetts L Scott Harshbarger (1991 - 1999), Thomas F Reilly (1999-2007), Maura T Healey (2015 - 2023), Andrea J Campbell (Jan 2023-)
- Police Commissioner and Chief of Boston Police Department: Paul Francis Evans, Jr (1994 - 2003), Kathleen M O'Toole (2004 - 2006), Edward F Davis III (2006 - 2013), William B Evans (2014 - 2018), William G Gross (2018 - 2021), Michael A Cox (2022-)
- MIT presidents Leo Rafael Reif (2012-2022); senior council Jamie Lewis Keith (1999-2006); general counsel Mark C DiVincenzo (2015-)
- Harvard president Lawrence H Summers (2001-2006), general counsel Anne Taylor (-2002), Robert W Iuliano (2003-2019)
- Boston University president Robert A Brown (2005-2023), Boston University general counsel Erika Geetter (2013-)
- Boston College president William P Leahy, general counsel Joseph Herlihy (1998-2021)

(8)

(a) The hallmark of DOJ's relentless legal campaign against Lu has been straight to judge chambers, enlisting chief judge of a court from which clerk and associate judges willing to do the bidding flow.

(b) Ever since 1995 when Lu filed his first federal case, none of the district judges assigned to his case in District of Massachusetts has been randomly assigned. Successive chief judges and clerks -- the sitting clerk is Robert M Farrell (2013-), his predecessor being Sarah A Thornton -- of that court have manipulated the assignment so that an occasional associate justice or magistrate judge unwilling to bend to the prevailing wind would not be assigned (to Lu).

(c) The same has happened in US Dist Ct (E.D.Pa) where chief judges Juan R Sánchez and Mitchell S Goldberg -- in the administrative function and along with clerk George V Wylesol -- assigned two cases of Lu's to corrupt judges who then set out to destroy the cases.

(a) flashback: Unaware of who they were, Lu sued in his first federal case of judicial corruption in Massachusetts state courts (Lu v Hadlock, US Dist Ct (D.Mass.) No 95-cv-12041 attorney Cameron F Kerry and law firm Pasternak Blankstein & Lund (successor: ArentFox Schiff). Lu soon learned that the attorney was the younger brother of the junior senator John F Kerry, and asked DOJ's Boston offices to look into facilitation, if any, of senator Kerry. Soon afterwards, Lu also read that a founder (Erik Lund) of the law firm married then circuit judge Sandra L Lynch, who has since always ruled against Lu, albeit repeated motions to disqualify her in various appeals. Lu's nightmares follow: Among other things, Massachusetts sentenced Lu to maximum sentence for trespass (by being in his home; no appeal allowed since a quarter of century ago) and, in another criminal proceeding, state's psychiatric ward to evaluate his ability to stand trial, notwithstanding recognition of ability to represent himself and United States Supreme Court's previous decision that the two criteria were same.

(b) Time and again, DOJ has instigated state law enforcement agencies and district attorneys to file trumped up charges against Lu, none of which Lu was allowed issuance of subpoenas on his behalf by state court clerks. The latest refusals were by clerk Christopher E Phillips and his first assistant clerk Sheila F Lawn in Boston Municipal Court (Brighton Division) Nos 2108CR152 and 2208cr442. That criminal proceeding went forward, after DOJ made false charges against Lu, skipped procedural due process (hearings before state magistrate judges to dissuade them from moving criminal proceedings forward) and then called two Boston police officers from Area D14 (Brighton) to come to Area D4 (Back Bay) to catch Lu unaware, on two purported outstanding warrants. In the process, the two officers (Benjamin Katz and Isabel Sweet) discarded Lu's personal effects (carry-on and in pockets) at the scene in spite of Lu's pleadings to take in the belongings.

Count Sixteen 42 USC § 1983: in violation of Fourth (unreasonable seizure of properties) and Fourteenth (due process and equal protection clauses) Amendments to federal constitution.

(c) The latest for DOJ to withhold police protection is to instruct Boston detective Jeffrey C Cecil to sit on time-sensitive tips from Lu about home address of one who robbed Lu violently

(a) DOJ followed Lu everywhere for decades. When Lu went in Congressional delegation offices, agents went straight into the inner sancta to request them not to assist Lu, while Lu waited in the lobby.

(b) DOJ and senators from Massachusetts together devised litmus tests for potential nominees of federal judiciary to assess willingness to dismiss Lu's claims in courts: To qualify, Myong J Joun, a state court judge at Brighton Division heard the civil action against Lu by

- inviting prosecution to sit in (courthouse was closed due to Covid-19);
- conspiring to have DOJ delete an affidavit (which served as complaint, and which clerk's office had emailed Lu at his request) after (DOJ's) breaking into Lu's email account;
- anonymously directing Lu's orders of tape recordings of proceedings;

- opening door for sham criminal proceedings described in ¶ (11)(b) supra.

(c) After doing all tricks, the loyal Joun passed the muster and twice nominated for federal judgeship (senate did not act on the first one for a year; the second nomination was successful).

(d) Senators Elizabeth A Warren and Edward J Markey have Nancy Gertner as the point person to extract pledges against Lu, before nomination, from future district judges Denise J Casper, Indira Talwani, Leo T Sorokin, Allison D Burroughs and Joun. Gertner was brought into the fold during her federal judgeship. After retirement from that post, she and her husband, an attorney named John Reinstein, carried on the torch against Lu. In a twist of fate, Lu once sought help from the husband to unlock the mystery about tormentors.

(a) In Lu v Hulme, US Dist Ct (D.Mass.) No 12-cv-11117, Lu on June 18, 2015 in person filed Request to Default Hulme and Trustees in Civil Contempt Proceeding, but then chief judge Saris and clerk Robert M Farrell never docketed it. Asked why not, his deputy replied cryptically, “They don’t want them to see it.” Lu asked, “Who are they?” The deputy repeated the sentence. Farrell never docketed the filing.

(b) United States v Abdelaziz (CA1 2023) 68 F.4th 1 was announced on May 10, 2023 (defendants/ appellees were John B Wilson Jr and Gamal Abdelaziz). In anticipation of remand to district court, Lu in defense of prosecution submitted in the underlying case (United States v Colburn, US Dist Ct (D.Mass.) No 19-cr-10080) two motions for leave to file amicus brief (with brief attached to each). Out of spite toward Lu, DOJ not only combined with district court's chief judge Saylor and clerk Farrell to not docket either motion or brief, but reached across the aisle to defendants and their attorneys (Michael Kendall of White & Case, LLP and Brian T Kelly of Nixon Peabody LLP, respectively and in that order) to conspire with Sorokin, J, to dismiss the case. Armed with the booty, Wilson sued on Mar 4, 2023: Wilson v Netflix, Inc, Barnstable Super Ct No 2472CV00092.

(c) Saris, Farrell and Saylor are sued for ministerial acts, to not docket filings and thus render dockets not reflecting the true filings. These are wire fraud, predicate acts of RICO.

(12)

(a) In Lu v Castillo, US Dist Ct (D.D.C.) No 22-cv-3683, district judge Jia M Cobb made an entry of ECF No 18 (Feb 6, 2023) and moved it ahead of DCF No 17 (dated Feb 7, 2023) -- to make it appear that No 18 predated No 17. This is cleric function and Cobb J does not have absolute immunity. In Mar 16, 2023, Lu mailed his claim under 28 USC § 2672 to Roslynn R Mausekopf, Director of Administrative Office of United States Courts and received no response.

(b) In Carroll v Trump, CA2 No CA2 No 20-3977 DOJ conspired with Second Circuit chief judge Debra Ann Livingston and clerk Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, coordinating with United States Attorney for Southern District of New York A Damian Williams Jr, to prevent Lu's amicus briefs from being docketed for three months, until the case was decided.

(13) Lu can not overemphasize that DOJ read Lu's emails and proactively reaches out to Lu adversary, real or potential, to offer a hand in defense and have case dismissed once filed.

(a) On or about Aug 15, 2021, Lu went to One Washington Mall in Boston to recycle electronics in Staples. Upon entry, a man in street clothes without identifying himself signaled Lu to get out. Lu told the man that he was there to recycle electronics, and moved past him. The man apparently summoned help and an employee of Staples rushed out to order Lu out. Just outside the store while in the premise of the mall, the man provided a false name and falsely claimed to be a special police officer certified by Boston. The man was later said to be an employee of the mall owner The Georgetown Company LLC. Subsequently Lu went to Area A1 police station to file a police report, but two officers there expelled Lu. Lu made a request for public record as to identify of the two officers, and Shawn Williams, record access officer of City of Boston, refused, asserting the request was a question, not request for record.

Count Seventeen 42 USC § 1983: in violation of Fourteenth Amendment (due process clause) against Georgetown and Williams

Count Eighteen fraud under Massachusetts common law

(b) Limited to Endodontics, Inc, Steven M Corliss, Peter H Velyvis, Emina Zaganjori Kelly (hereafter LTE) misplaced a check Lu had submitted as a patient for a dental visit, lied to Lu that its bank had misplaced check(s), and asked Lu to replace the check. A demurring Lu, relying on LTE's statement, directed LTE to address the issue to its own bank, not Lu. LTE retaliated by voting among its shareholders to disenfranchise and debar Lu. Lu's demand letter under Mass Gen Laws chap 93A, § 9 (Consumer Protection Act) asked LTE to reverse the decision, not least because LTE had promised to defray or set off root canal cost by the amount of the check. The letter was ignored.

Count Nineteen Mass Gen Laws chap 93A, § 9

Count Twenty fraud under Massachusetts Common law

Count Twenty One breach of contract under Massachusetts Common law

(c) On June 7, 2021 Lu emailed Maureen Feeney -- city clerk of City of Boston and ex officio, agent to receive process for certain city officials -- to make an appointment to have process served on her. City hall was closed to the public during the Covid-19 pandemic and appointment was needed and granted. Her inaction rendered Lu unable to have process served.

Count Twenty Two 42 USC § 1983: violating Fourteenth Amendment (due process and equal protection clauses) to the federal constitution)

(d) Boston Public Health Commission (BPHC) not just reduced beds by about half around January, last year but later withdrew the second floor for special use. Ordinary homeless people (such as Lu) can not access that floor (except a TV room at certain hours). Lu was once assigned to a bed on that floor but in the middle of the night, Willie Butler removed Lu for no reason that Lu had “no right to be anyway.” Lu appealed the decision to Wilbert Wilson, citing constitutional right, who laughed off the notion with Butler.

Maria Robles refused to provide information under state's public record law.

Count Twenty Three: All three are sued under 42 USC § 1983 in violation of Fourteenth Amendment (due process) to federal constitution.

BPHC installs motion sensors in stalls for toilets and showers. The sensors are hyperactive: Lu’s estimate is that absent movement for ten seconds, alarm is triggered. Hence, an occupant has to constantly flail his arms.

Count Twenty Four Mass Gen Laws chap 214, § 1B (Massachusetts Privacy Act)

(e) On Nov 9, 2021 Lu was battered in Boston. Ryan A MacLean (Massachusetts state trooper), Christopher J Noone (Paralegal Specialist), Michael B Halpin (Special Counsel to the Colonel of Massachusetts Department of State Police), and Jennifer M Staples (Chief Legal Counsel 2020-) colluded with DOJ to deny Lu the police report, a public record.

(f) Lu went to police headquarters of City of Medford, Massachusetts to file a police report against a police officer at Tufts University in vain, in that, though the alleged crime occurred on City pavement just outside a Tufts building, Medford police claimed Tufts police had sole jurisdiction. Tufts police chief did not act on Lu’s request for identity of that Tufts officer. Lu had no legal recourse to obtain the name of that Tufts officer in order to sue him.

Count Twenty Five 42 USC § 1983: Trustees of Tufts College under color of unconstitutional state law (Mass Gen Laws chap 66, § 10 as interpreted by The Harvard Crimson, Inc v President and Fellows of Harvard College (2006) 445 Mass 745, 840 N.E. 2d 518) deprived Lu of rights secured by First (petition clause, including access to court) and Fourteenth (due process and equal protection clauses) Amendments to federal constitution. The decision was galling in that 445 Mass, at 748, n 4 asserted that that court skipped a constitutional issue because plaintiff had not raised it at trial court -- but Lu did as an amicus. The state high court manifested the never-Lu bias that is typical of DOJ's decadeslong campaign against Lu.

(g) At the direction of then mayor Scott D Galvin at City of Woburn, Massachusetts, successive Woburn Public Library directors Chuck Flaherty and Hermayne Gordon every few months devised new stratagems to hinder Lu's use of computers there, solely because Lu was not from that city, culminating in strictly two-hour use without prior notice to Lu.

Count Twenty Six 42 USC § 1983: Galvin, City of Woburn, Chuck Flaherty and Hermayne Gordon in violation of First (access to library) and Fourteenth (due process and equal protection clauses) Amendments to federal constitution.

(a) Joseph M Lee of Classic Cleaning Co, Inc invariably dispose of clients trash in the disguise household trash, foisting disposal cost from clients on City of Boston. Years ago, Lu reported the practice to Steven Tankle, Director of Code Enforcement, who disclosed Lu's identity and the information to Lee. Tankle, Lee, Lee's decadeslong employee Jesús ___ and trash hauler together designed a scheme to retaliate against Lu, including destruction of Lu's property.

Count Twenty Seven Mass Gen Laws chap 12, §§ 5A-5O (Massachusetts False Claims Act; against Lee, Classic Cleaning Co, Inc, Jesús and son)

Count Twenty Eight 42 USC § 1983 (violating Fourteenth Amendment)due process) to federal constitution

(b) When Jesús son plunged a knife a foot before Lu for assault, Lu told the son, an on-and-off employee of Lee's, that he (Lu) would go to Boston police. Jesús told his son not to worry as DOJ covered their back.

(c) Through the years, Jesús converted a round plastic barrel of Lu's for his own use, and threw away Lu's belongings without prior notice in spite of Massachusetts state law.

Count Twenty Nine conversion under Massachusetts common law.

(15) On Dec 22, 2023 William Enright without right threw away Lu's belongings.

Count Thirty conversion under Massachusetts common law

(16)

(a) Cardinal Seán Patrick O'Malley is archbishop, and Francis J O'Connor, general counsel, of the Archdiocese of Boston. Both preapproved collusion with DOJ and judges of state and federal courts -- in Lu v LaFrazia, Boston Municipal Court No 2001CV000632 and Lu v Budd, US Dist Ct (D.Mass.) No 21-cv-10352.

Count Thirty One 42 USC § 1983 (collusion with state judges and clerks in violation of Fourteenth Amendment (due process) to federal constitution

(b) Robert P Powers, managing partner of Melick & Porter, LLP authorized the same collusion in two cases where Trustees of Tufts college were defendants.

(c) Long ago, against Lu DOJ recruited Marie R Breen (2017-2023), MassDOT / MBTA general counsel, who, among other things (including collusion with judges), wholesale blocked release of MBTA police reports (despise being public record under Mass Gen Laws chap 66, § 10) depriving Lu as victim of rights secured by First (access to court) and Fourteenth (due process) Amendments to federal constitution, which is Count Thirty Two.

(17) A bit more than a year ago, MBTA just shut down the Orange Line, uprooted and replaced the entire track and everything that went with it. Ever since, MBTA keeps closing the same line to maintain track or signal system.

Count Thirty Three fraud under Massachusetts common law

(18) In Lu v Comcast Cable Communications, LLC, CA3 No 2303135 attorney David J Carcamo falsely declared that he emailed Lu a copy of Motion to File Supplemental Appendix. Which forms the basis of wire fraud, a predicate act of RICO for Comcast.

(19) In Lu v Young, defendants (BPHC and its officials Ojikutu, Timothy J Harrington, Raza, Pasternack) and their counsel (Mark A Hipple and Gregory R Archibald of McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC) made false statements whenever they claimed courts have no personal jurisdictions either because defendants were not served with process or because they lack minimal contact with Pennsylvania: eg, the June 14, 2023 Motion to Dismiss in US Dist Ct (E.D.Pa.) No 23-cv-1239, the June 26, 2023 Motion to Dismiss Appeal in CA3 No 23-1845, and Feb 2, 2024 Reply Brief in CA3 No 2496. These constituted RICO predicate acts of wire and mail fraud.

(20) Capitol Waste Services, Inc has an employee who invariably empties recyclables from recyclables bins to trash tracks, to throw the away, as City of Boston pays more to Capitol for weight of trash than recyclables hauled in. These are wire and mail fraud, RICO's predicate acts.

Count Thirty Four 18 USC § 1962(c) (against Capitol)

Count Thirty Five Mass Gen Laws chap 12, §§ 5A-5O (against Capitol)

(21) Lu demands jury trial, punitive damage (excluding government), injunctive relief, declaratory judgment, and court cost.
